

TO: EPIDEMIOLOGY FACULTY

FROM: Barbara Hulka

DATE: April 28, 1993

RE: TEACHING ASSISTANTS/GRADUATE ASSISTANTS

As you are probably aware, the state funds from which we can pay teaching or graduate assistants are quite limited, and must meet the needs of our required methods courses (160, 168, 201, 268 and 269.) During the 1993/94 year, there will be no funding available for student assistants in any other course.

TO: FACULTY TEACHING METHODS COURSES
FROM: Barbara Hulka
DATE: April 30, 1993
RE: TEACHING ASSISTANTS (GRADUATE ASSISTANTS)

Our funding for TAs/GAs for the coming year will cover the positions listed below. These appointments will exhaust the funds.

EPID 160: Fall and Spring, Carl Shy.
1 coordinator Fall and Spring (Cassel Fellow).
2 10-hour positions, 18 weeks, Fall.
2 10-hour positions, 18 weeks, Spring.

EPID 168: Fall, Vic Schoenbach.
2 10-hour positions, 18 weeks, fall.

EPID 201: Spring, David Savitz
2 10-hour positions or equivalent, 18 weeks.

EPID 268:
Fall, Marilyn Vine.
1 10-hour position, 18 weeks.
Spring, Rachel Royce.
2 10-hour positions or equivalent, 26 weeks.

EPID 269: Spring, Irva Hertz-Picciotto
2 10-hour positions or equivalent, 26 weeks.

SAS WORKSHOP: Fall and Spring, Kathy Rose

[EPID 160 off-campus: HPAA funds TA.]